

Fort Dalles Riders' Association presents “Day of the Horse”

What: a free community event for everything equine and equine related

When: Saturday, May 19, 2018 from 9 am until 6 pm or dark

Where: Fort Dalles Riders' Club, 1023 Irvine Street, The Dalles, OR

“Day of the Horse” will bring equestrians, horse enthusiasts and love of western life style together in one place on one day.

We are currently seeking vendors to help “Day of the Horse” be a successful, fun, and educational event in the Gorge. If you have knowledge or products we have the space (free of charge). We are looking for a combination of vendors and/or vendors willing to give a demonstration(s) such as but not limited to: veterinarian's, equine massage, acupuncture, light therapy, farriers, western clothing, boots, hats, jewelry and accessories, horse camps, lessons, saddle clubs, boarding facilities, how to be a rodeo queen, saddle maker, saddle fitting, leather goods, tack (new and used), insurance underwriters (farm/ranch/equine and equine activities), feed, grooming supplies, barn and arena builders, real estate for the horse lover, equine related décor (indoor and outdoor), photographers, trailer options, horse rescue, wild horse/BLM program, Aussie dog rescue, Food Vendors, 4-H and FFA.

Throughout the day there will be demonstrations in the arena. The following vendors have already signed up to do a demonstration: mounted shooting, how to pack your horse/mule, Mexican dancing horses, drill teams, cattle working, Icelandic's and Lipizzaner's.

If you would like to showcase your area of expertise in the arena or be a vendor, please give Gaylene Howell a call 541-806-2576 or Lisa Roland at 971-678-8917.

We would love to have your help to make “Day of the Horse” an amazing community event.
